

EMPIRE STATE QUARTER HORSE ASSOCIATION, INC.

Organization By-Laws

ARTICLE I: Name and Purpose

Section 1: Name: This association shall be known as the Empire State Quarter Horse Association, Inc.

Section 2: Objective: The general purpose shall be to further encourage the ownership of the Quarter Horse and to enlighten the public to its general purpose, to promote more and better breeding and secure as many possibilities for the exhibition and sale of Quarter Horses in compliance with the American Quarter Horse Association rules.

ARTICLE II: Membership

Section 1: Any reliable person owning Quarter Horses or interested in Quarter Horses is eligible for membership in this Association, regardless of the state in he or she resides.

Section 2: Membership may be obtained upon payment of dues for the current year, provided that applicant is approved by a membership committee.

Section 3: Annual dues shall be $35 for one year, $95 for three years or $250 for life for either a family, farm organization or an individual membership. Each membership will be entitled to one vote. A Family membership includes children who are eligible to ride in AQHA Youth Activity. Nonpayment of dues shall automatically forfeit membership in the Association. If there are no objections by the membership, a member in arrears may be reinstated. All dues must be current in order to vote. (Amendment No. 3-3/91, No. 5-3/91, No.9-1/98, No.10-10/06, No. 12-1/11)

Section 4: Any member may resign his or her membership and withdraw from the Association by presenting to the Secretary a written statement of resignation with the understanding that dues will not be refunded. (Amendment No.13-1/11)

Section 5: Any member may be expelled upon just cause in accordance with Section 6 below. (Amendment No.14-1/11)

Section 6: All complaints shall be in writing and signed by the complainant and submitted to the Board. The Board shall provide a copy of the complaint to the accused member. Within one month thereafter, all parties will be allowed to present their case to the Board in executive session. The complainant and the accused member shall present such evidence or witnesses as they deem necessary to support their position. The Board will then meet in executive session to vote to expel or not to expel upon a majority of the Board present and will mail a copy of their finding to the accused within five days thereafter. (Amendment No.15-1/11)

Section 7: Any member expelled by the American Quarter Horse Association is automatically expelled from this Association.

Section 8: Any resigning or expelled member forfeits all rights to any property of the Association.

Section 9: Any expelled member may be reinstated upon receiving the majority approval of the Board of Directors.

Section 10: Any member who fails to make good any indebtedness written to ESQHA and ESQHYA (Empire State Quarter Horse Youth Association) shall have all membership privileges in ESQHA suspended from the date the check was written. All members included under that membership shall remain suspended until such payment is made good and is cleared by the current treasurer of ESQHA. This shall include all members (youth and adult) whose bills are paid by another party, as well as those that pay their own bills. (Amendment No.16-1/11)

ARTICLE III: Officers and Directors

Section 1: The general management of the affairs of the Association shall be vested in the Board of Directors, which shall be composed of the officers, elected and honorary directors. The AQHA Representative(s) will be non-voting member(s) of the Board of Directors. The number necessary to constitute a quorum at meetings of the Board shall be 1/3 (one third) or more of the duly elected officers and directors, excepting honorary directors. A majority of this quorum shall be governing. (Amendment No.17-1/11)

Section 2: The elected Officers of the Association shall consist of a President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, and Treasurer. In order to be eligible for nomination as an Officer, a member in good standing must have served as a Director for a minimum of one (1) year. (Amendment No.18-1/11)

Section 3: Secretary is a paid position appointed by the Board of Directors annually. The Secretary is not a voting member of the Board, but shall attend Board meetings. (Amendment No.19-1/11)

Section 4: There shall be a minimum of twelve (12) Directors elected from the general membership. Prior to accepting nominations, the Board will specify the number of directorships to be filled. In order to be eligible for nomination as a Director, a member in good standing must have served on a Committee for at least one year. The absence from three (3) consecutive meetings of the Board of Directors, without cause, except for honorary directors, may be reason for removal from the Board. A replacement Director shall be appointed from the general membership by the remaining Directors for the unexpired term. (Amendment No.7(no date), No.20-1/11)

Section 5: The President, First Vice President and Second Vice President shall be ex-officio members of all committees. The Immediate Past President will be a non-voting member of the Board of Directors for one year.(Amendment No.21-1/11)

Section 6: The Directors of the association shall be elected for a two year term except at the first meeting to be held the first Saturday of March 1963, when six were elected for a one year term and an additional six for a two year term. Thereafter a minimum of six directors will be elected annually for a term of two years. (Amendment No. 4 (no date), No.22-1/11)

Section 7: All officers and directors shall be legal residents of New York State, except honorary directors.

Section 8: Candidates for election to office for the succeeding year or years shall be selected by the Nominating Committee and their names presented at the nominating meeting.

Section 9: Nominations for election, in addition to those made by the nominating committee, may be made at the nominating meeting by any member in good standing and duly seconded by a member in good standing. Those individuals nominated must meet criteria outlined in Article III Sections 2 and 4. (Amendment No.23-1/11)

Section 10: The officers and directors, except honorary directors, of the Association shall be elected by ballot mailed to the Association or presented in person at the annual meeting. The candidate receiving the majority of votes shall be elected to the office for which he was nominated. One official ballot shall be supplied to each member eligible to vote. Family membership shall have one vote.

Section 11: Two or more inspectors of election shall be appointed by the President at the election meeting.

Section 12: The President, First Vice-President, Second Vice President and Treasurer shall hold offices for a one year term or until their successors are elected. An officer may succeed himself/herself. (Amendment No.24-1/11)

Section 13: If a vacancy occurs among the officers or directors, such vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by appointment of a member selected by the remaining officers and directors.

Section 14: There is established a separate directorship, entitled "honorary director," to bestow on those members with records of outstanding and meritorious service to ESQHA, a special recognition and honor which they have justly earned, and to benefit ESQHA from their continued participation and guidance. Those who receive and deserve this evidence of our appreciation and esteem will enjoy the same rights and privileges as officers and other members of the Board of Directors. A person nominated for this honor must receive a majority vote of the Board of Directors on prior notice followed by a majority vote of the membership on prior notice by ballot or in person, one vote per individual or family membership.

ARTICLE IV: Duties and Authority

Section 1: The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Board of Directors and shall appoint such committees as he or the Board of Directors shall consider expedient or necessary.
